ELLIS CEMETERY

Union Township, Highland County, Ohio

Remarks: Residents of the vicinity state that this cemetery was created when a child of the ELLIS family died. At the time of her death Turtle Creek, which flows south of the highway and north of the old ELLIS home, could not be forded because of its swollen waters. Her body could not be carried across the creek to be buried in an established cemetery so she was buried on the knoll overlooking the creek. This cemetery is now abandoned. A few field stones serve as monuments. All stones copied.
